From the Brussels Gazette, dated Jan. 8.

Lisbon, December 21.

THE 9th being the Feast of the Conception of the Holy Virgin, the peculiar Protectress of this Kingdom, a Royal Chappel was held at the Palace. The King was cloath'd in the Habit of the Order of Christ, and was accompanied by the Prince of Brasil, the Infante Don Francisco, the Foreign Ministers and the Lords of the Court, in greater Number than usual, because it was the first time the King's Sons had assisted in the Solemnity of that Festival: After the Service was over, the King went to visit the miraculous Image of our Lady of Necessity; and from thence went to see the Queen Dowager, who is at present in perfect Health.

Venice, Dec. 15. On the 13th Signior Gradenigo was honour'd by the Senate with the Dignity of Procurator of St. Mark. By a Ship arriv'd from Zante we have receiv'd Advice of the Arrival of two of our Men of War at that Island, which are sent to fetch the Procurator Soranzo from Constantinople, where he had resided two or three Years, in Quality of Ambassador of the Republick, and was lately reliev'd by Signior Giustiniani. The last Letters from Constantinople inform'd us, that, since the Insurrection of the Bostangies was quell'd, and their Order abolish'd, there has been no further Commotions; That the Grand Signior gives great Application to publick Business, frequently comes out of the Seraglio in Disguise, and mingles with the Soldiers and People to hear their Discourses. These Letters add, that they make great Preparations of War throughout all Turkey.

Venice, Dec. 28. On Christmas-day our Doge treated the Foreign Ministers, according to Custom. But the Ambassadors of the Emperor and of the King of France were not there, because the first has been sick several days, and the other is very much discontented at our Regents having lately suppress'd the Franchises of all Foreign Ministers Quarters; this Affair makes a great Noise here; and we are in impatient Expectation of the return of two Couriers that are sent to the Court of France, one by the Republick to their Ambassador, ordering him to represent to the King the Reasons of their taking away those Franchises, the other from the French Ambassador to his Master, for his Majesty's Instructions how to demean himself on this Occasion.

From the Paris Gaz. a la Main, dated Dec. 31.

Paris, Dec. 31. It is reported, that upon Advice of the Republick of Venice's having abolish'd the Franchises of all Foreign Ministers Quarters, Orders are sent to the King's Ambassador there, to signify to the Regents of that Republick, that they are Masters at home, and may do what they please, but they must not expect for the Future to be treated with the same Ceremony as is used towards Crown'd Heads.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Jan. 15.

Rome, Dec. 22. Prince Vaini who was banish'd to Orvieto, is set at Liberty through the Intercession of the King of France, and is come to Frascati; but on Condition to forbear coming to Rome till after a certain time. On the 18th the Count de Tresno was brought hither under a Guard from Ferrara, and put into the Prison of the Inquisition, being accus'd of certain Heresies. The 19th being the Birth-day of King Philip V. the Ambassador of Spain made a noble Entertainment, to which 48 Persons of Quality, Spaniards and French, were invited: And at Night that Minister's Palace was illuminated, and a Consort of Musick perform'd in it. The new Earthquakes that were felt the beginning of this Month, did a great deal of Mischief at Terni, Spoleto, Narni, and Norcia; And the Inhabitants of those Places have quitted their Dwellings, and live in the open Country under Tents and Barracks; Many of them are dead for want of Food and other Necessaries; whereupon the Pope has sent 60000 Crowns and a great Quantity of Provisions to be distributed among those that survive. On the 20th a Courier arriv'd here from the Cardinal Legate of Bologna, with Advice that the Imperialists were making some Motions on the Frontiers of Ferrara; and that tho' they had been summon'd in the Pope's Name to evacuate the Castle of Gouri, into which they lately put a Garrison, they went on with strengthening the Fortifications of that Castle, the better to cover their grand Magazine at Mezola.
